ITEMS OF INTEREST.

Lexington, Ky., May 20.—Coincident with the anniversary of the funeral of her father, James W. Carter, a horseman, Lillian Carter, his pretty eighteen-year-old daughter, tonight shot herself accidentally. It is said, in the right temple and died instantly. The affair occurred at the home of the girl's mother, Mrs. Leon Carter, a sister of Mrs. F. D. Ryan, of Central avenue, Cincinnati.

Frankfort, Ky., May 31.—Curt Jett, the notorious Breathitt county leader, is giving his keepers at the Kentucky penitentiary considerable trouble these days. For failure to make his task he has been severely whipped, and that failing to accomplish the desired result, he has been placed in the prison dungeon in solitary confinement. Jett has been a good prisoner for months up to a few weeks ago. He is said to be laboring under the impression that he is being imposed upon and discriminated against in comparison with some of the other noted murder prisoners of the institution and has complained that he is given a much heavier task than he is capable of performing.

D. H. Mobergen, of Clark county, has a pair of recent birds that can fly high of eyes.

Miss Elizabeth Childs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Childs, and Simon Clarkson, son of Mrs. Amy Clarkson, each aged only fourteen years, pupils of Limestone school district No. 42, Harlan county, successfully passed the recent common school examination and have received diplomas bearing the state seal.

Martha Johnson, colored, probably the heaviest human being in the world, succumbed last week to fatty degeneration of the heart at her home in the rear of 434 Lampton street Louisville. The last time she was weighed, she tipped the beam at 511 pounds. She was fifty-two years old and a native of Kentucky. She had been very large, weighing over 200 pounds. For the past two years she had been an invalid. On account of her immense weight and gradually increased in involuntarily.

Lexington, Ky., May 21.—Capt. V. G. Milkin, of this city, with two horsemen, today, took up the trail of William Jones, colored, who is charged with the murder of Ella Clemmons, colored, an eighteen-year-old girl, in Bath county, last night. The girl was found lying in a pool of blood, with her throat cut from ear to ear. Jones was last seen going in the direction of Carlisle.

Lexington, Ky., June 1.—John Smith, charged jointly with James and Elmer Hargis, Bill Britton and John Miner with the murder of Dr. H. D. Carr, was released on bond of $10,000 today following his incarceration last night.

Smith desires having expressed regret at having confessed the Breathitt murder plot. He declares that he will stand by his statements to the truth.

Attorneys Jettett and Floyd Byrd, looking toward the prosecution in the Breathitt case, object to the appointment of John A. Daugherty as Special Judge. They will protest to Governor Beckham, it is said.

Jackson, Ky., June 1.—Matt Sloan, one of the most desperate characters of Breathitt county, was shot six times by Pete Stricklin, last night and instantly killed. The men long had been enemies.

Sloan has just returned home from serving a penitentiary sentence for shooting a man in Breathitt county. Sloan and Stricklin met, renewed their old trouble and Stricklin killed Sloan. Sloan was a former headman of the Hargis clan of Breathitt county, and long had been identified with feud troubles. He was in the feud cattle four years ago in Wolfe county, and was shot four times.

Much damage was done in Central Kentucky, especially in Carlisle and Paris, by a heavy rain and electrical storm which struck that section last week. In Carlisle a creek rose so rapidly that occupants of houses on its banks had to be removed in barges. The main damage was to tobacco plants, many beds being washed bare.

The amount of coal produced in Kentucky last year, according to a bulletin issued last week by the Geological Survey, was 9,678,536 tons, valued at $9,194,823.

Lexington, Ky., June 3.—Reports received today indicate that the damage by Saturday night's cloudburst will probably reach over $50,000. In Nicholas, Pendleton, Wolfe, Lee, Grant, Harrison, Bourbon, Montgomery, Bath and other Central and Eastern Kentucky counties live stock, bridges, fencing, small outbuildings and feed were washed away. All trains are delayed by landslides. Several landslides are reported on the Chesapeake and Ohio in the eastern part of the State. Bridges were washed away over the Lexington and Eastern railroad near Torrent, Wolfe county.

Hiram Blaire, a mail carrier, is missing in Nicholas county and is believed to have been drowned or killed by lightning in Bourbon county. John Crow and Harry Towles were struck by lightning and badly injured. Crow was unconscious for more than an hour. Mountain streams are all rising rapidly, and it is feared that logs will be washed out by floods and lost.
